PROSPECTUS
OF THE
ILLUSTRATED FAMILY FRIEND.
A NEW PAPER,
For the Fireside, the Parlor, and the Leisure Moment.
TO BE PUBLISHED
In Columbia, S. C., on the first of November next,
S. A. GODMAN,
Late Editor of the Laurensville, S. C. "Herald," Author of "The Slave," "Forward and Aft," "The Ocean Born," &c., &c.

NOT from the lack of Newspapers in the Palmetto-State, nor from their want of ability—for we feel proud to know that the Press of South Carolina will compare favorably with that of any State in the Union—are we induced to anticipate the success of the ILLUSTRATED FAMILY FRIEND.
But, whilst cheerfully acknowledging the marked and unmistakable talent displayed in the management of our cotemporaries, and cordially wishing them a full support and generous patronage, we yet think there is an ample field, now unoccupied, for the growth and expansion of the paper which it will be our endeavor to make, not only nominally the Family Friend, but really and sincerely the Friend—real, loyal and true—of every family in the State.

The fierce and fiery discussion of party politics, the useful, but dry records of commerce and traffic, as leading features, we will leave for the pens now so active and eloquent in their service; and whilst we will give to both subjects, as much space as will be desirable to the general reader, our greatest object, and principal aim will be, the evolution, elucidation and exaltation, of the Pure, the Beautiful, the Useful and Instructive, in the paths of Morality, Virtue, Literature, Science, Art and Agriculture.

The Ideal being more easily comprehended and more captivating, when combined in some degree with the Material—we will bring the Artist's skillful hand into requisition to illustrate the mind's conceptions, and to render the Family Friend as nearly perfect as it is possible to make a physical means adapted to a mental end. In every number, therefore, we will give, in addition to a large amount of original reading matter from the pens of WRITERS OF ACKNOWLEDGED POWER AND GENIUS,
AT LEAST
FOUR HANDSOME, PERTINENT, AND ELEGANTLY EXECUTED ENGRAVINGS.

To stimulate the young to renewed exertions in the pursuit of knowledge, fame and fortune—and to encourage those who have already entered upon the actualities of life, to persevere and be steadfast in their strivings upward and onward towards the goal of their hopes, has in all ages and in all countries, been considered an object worthy of the noblest ambition. To effect ends so desirable, what means can be imagined more likely to prove efficacious, than would familiarity with the painful struggles undergone, the privations borne, the difficulties overcome, by men now living, who have distinguished themselves, either as Scholars, Statesmen, Politicians, Jurists, Physicians, Divines, Authors, Artists, Merchants, Mechanics, Military men, or Agriculturnists. Consequently, as a new, and we think very valuable feature, we will give
IN EVERY ISSUE.
A CORRECT LIKENESS OF SOME PROMINENT SOUTH CAROLINIAN,
WITH AN AUTHENTIC BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH.

These are brief, very brief hints, at the intentions and purposes of the ILLUSTRATED FAMILY FRIEND—the narrow limits of a Prospectus will not permit us to make them more full; but scant as they are, we trust they are ample enough, to conceive every candid and intelligent person, that though we intend not to boast, we design publishing a paper that will be worthy a liberal support.

TERMS:
As it is our intention to make the Family Friend a permanent publication, upon which the friends who aid it now, in its infancy, may look with increasing pleasure as it improves with years—everything connected with its mechanical arrangement will be of the best quality. The Family Friend will be issued weekly—printed on a Large Imperial sheet of fine white paper, with beautiful, clear type; and will be furnished to subscribers at $2 per annum; one dollar to be paid on the receipt of the first number, and one dollar at the expiration of six months.

P. S.—Those who desire to subscribe, will find lists at all the Post Offices in the District.
We are authorized to announce
ALEX. L. McDONALD, a Candidate for Tax Collector for Kershaw District, at the ensuing election.

MRS. MACK would inform the citizens of Camden that (having completed her engagement at the Academy) she will open on the 1st day of August next, at her residence on Rutledge-st., a select Female School, and respectfully solicits public patronage.
